Civil No. 1:15CV7

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, Advanced Marketing Systems, LLC ("AMS"), by counsel, hereby sets forth its Complaint against Defendant, Ingles Markets, Inc. ("Ingles"), as follows:

NATURE OF THE CASE

1. This action is for patent infringement arising under the patent laws of the United States, 35 U.S.C. §§ 1, et seq. AMS seeks monetary damages and injunctive relief in this action for this patent infringement.

THE PARTIES

2. Plaintiff AMS is a limited liability company organized and existing under the laws of the state of Delaware, with its principal place of business located at Six Gisborne Place, Old Greenwich, CT 06870. AMS is in the business of software and computer management solutions for marketing and promotion applications.

3. Upon information and belief, Ingles is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the state of North Carolina, with its principal place of business located at 2913 US Highway 70 W, Black Mountain, NC 28711. Ingles is in the retail grocery business.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

4. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over the claims in this action which relate to patent infringement pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338(a).

5. Venue is proper in this judicial district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(b) and (c) and/or 28 U.S.C. § 1400(b), because Ingles resides in and has a regular and established place of business in this district and the acts of infringement occurred in this district and elsewhere.

COUNT I

(Infringement of U.S. Patent No. 8,219,445)

6. AMS realleges and incorporates herein by reference the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 5 above.

7. On July 10, 2012, the United States Patent and Trademark Office duly and legally issued United States Patent No. 8,219,445 entitled “Promotion Processor and Management System” (“the ‘445 Patent”). A true and correct copy of the ‘445 Patent is attached as Exhibit 1.

8. AMS is the owner of the ‘445 Patent and has all substantial rights and interests in the ‘445 Patent, including without limitation, the right to sue and recover damages for past, present, and future patent infringement and therefore has standing to sue for infringement of the ‘445 Patent.

9. Upon information and belief, Ingles has infringed and continues to infringe one or more claims of the ‘445 Patent by making and/or using a website application that embodies the patented invention.

10. Ingles’ infringing system includes a website to load digital coupon(s) to a consumer’s Ingles Advantage Card (i.e., loyalty card) and/or UPromise offers to a consumer’s Ingles Advantage Card for later redemption at time of purchase.

11. Upon information and belief, Ingles had knowledge of AMS's patent rights as a result of article in trade publications and otherwise. Ingles' infringement of the '445 Patent is thus willful, deliberate and intentional in that it has continued its acts of infringement with knowledge of the '445 Patent. Ingles is thus acting in reckless disregard of AMS' patent rights.

12. AMS has suffered damages and will continue to suffer damages as a result of Ingles' infringement of the '445 Patent. AMS is entitled to damages as provided for by law for Ingles' infringement of the '445 Patent.

13. As a result of Ingles' infringement of the '445 Patent, Ingles has caused and will continue to cause irreparable harm to AMS, and will continue to injure AMS unless permanently enjoined by this Court.

COUNT II

(Infringement of U.S. Patent No. 8,370,199)

14. AMS realleges and incorporates herein by reference the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 13 above.

15. On February 5, 2013, the United States Patent and Trademark Office duly and legally issued United States Patent No. 8,370,199 entitled "Promotion Processor and Management System" ("the '199 Patent"). A true and correct copy of the '199 Patent is attached as Exhibit 2.

16. AMS is the owner of the '199 Patent and has all substantial rights and interests in the '199 Patent, including without limitation, the right to sue and recover damages for past, present, and future patent infringement and therefore has standing to sue for infringement of the '199 Patent.

17. Upon information and belief, Ingles has infringed and continues to infringe one or more claims of the '199 Patent by making and/or using a website application that embodies the patented invention.

18. Ingles' infringing system includes a website to load digital coupon(s) to a consumer's Ingles Advantage Card (i.e., loyalty card) and/or UPromise offers to a consumer's Ingles Advantage Card for later redemption at time of purchase.

19. Upon information and belief, Ingles had knowledge of AMS's patent rights as a result of article in trade publications and otherwise. Ingles' infringement of the '199 Patent is thus willful, deliberate and intentional in that it has continued its acts of infringement with knowledge of the '199 Patent. Ingles is thus acting in reckless disregard of AMS' patent rights.

20. AMS has suffered damages and will continue to suffer damages as a result of Ingles' infringement of the '199 Patent. AMS is entitled to damages as provided for by law for Ingles' infringement of the '199 Patent.

21. As a result of Ingles' infringement of the '199 Patent, Ingles has caused and will continue to cause irreparable harm to AMS, and will continue to injure AMS unless permanently enjoined by this Court.

COUNT III
(Infringement of U.S. Patent No. 8,538,805)

22. AMS realleges and incorporates herein by reference the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 21 above.

23. On September 17, 2013, the United States Patent and Trademark Office duly and legally issued United States Patent No. 8,538,805 entitled "Promotion Processor and Management System" ("the '805 Patent"). A true and correct copy of the '805 Patent is attached as Exhibit 3.

24. AMS is the owner of the '805 Patent and has all substantial rights and interests in the '805 Patent, including without limitation, the right to sue and recover damages for past, present, and future patent infringement and therefore has standing to sue for infringement of the '805 Patent.

25. Upon information and belief, Ingles has infringed and continues to infringe one or more claims of the '805 Patent by making and/or using a website application that embodies the patented invention.

26. Ingles' infringing system includes a website to load digital coupon(s) to a consumer's Ingles Advantage Card (i.e., loyalty card) and/or UPromise offers to a consumer's Ingles Advantage Card for later redemption at time of purchase.

27. Upon information and belief, Ingles had knowledge of AMS's patent rights as a result of article in trade publications and otherwise. Ingles' infringement of the '805 Patent is thus willful, deliberate and intentional in that it has continued its acts of infringement with knowledge of the '805 Patent. Ingles is thus acting in reckless disregard of AMS' patent rights.

28. AMS has suffered damages and will continue to suffer damages as a result of Ingles' infringement of the '805 Patent. AMS is entitled to damages as provided for by law for Ingles' infringement of the '805 Patent.

29. As a result of Ingles' infringement of the '805 Patent, Ingles has caused and will continue to cause irreparable harm to AMS, and will continue to injure AMS unless permanently enjoined by this Court.

EXCEPTIONAL CASE

30. Ingles' infringement of the '445, '199 and '805 Patents and the circumstances surrounding that infringement render this case exceptional under 35 U.S.C. § 285 and AMS is therefore entitled to its reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

JURY DEMAND

31. Plaintiff AMS demands a trial by jury as to all issues so triable.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, plaintiff AMS prays for the following relief:

- a. That the Court enter a judgment that Ingles has infringed, the '445, '199 and '805 Patents in violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271;
- b. That the Court enter a judgment that Ingles' infringement of the '445, '199 and '805 Patents was willful;
- c. That the Court award damages to AMS against Ingles adequate to compensate AMS for Ingles' past infringement of the '445, '199 and '805 Patents and any continuing or future infringement through the date such judgment is entered, including interest, costs, expenses;
- d. That the Court award enhanced damages pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 284, including enhanced damages based upon Ingles' willful infringement of the '445, '199 and '805 Patents;
- e. That the Court permanently enjoin Ingles, its officers, agents, servants, employees, parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, and successors from infringing the '445, '199 and '805 Patents;
- f. That the Court determine this case to be exceptional under 35 U.S.C. § 285, and that AMS be awarded its reasonable attorneys' fees under 35 U.S.C. § 285;

g. That the Court award of pre-judgment and post-judgment interest and costs to AMS;

h. That the Court grant such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and appropriate.

Respectfully submitted,
